

HAIL TO THE CHIEF!

tion against thieves." Gov. Cleveland laughed quite heartily at this.

In the pottery and glassware division were a team of horses which drew a presentation of the Tallapoosa. Sailors stood among the coils of old rope and rotten spars. The picture caused loud cheers.

The metal men had a truck drawn by four horses carrying a large anvil at which men were hammering red hot iron rods. Then followed forty bearded workmen carrying pick and shovels with a banner inscribed "Hoisting Valley miners working for sixty cents a day."

The sixty members of the Cotton exchange made a fine-looking body. The pottery and glassware manufacturers were small glass and china mugs. The produce and maritime exchange men, and then the drug clerks, followed.

The printers and publishers made a fine display. Several classes connected with Columbia college were represented by forty yelling students. It was dark when the jewels reached the square. As they moved past the governor they set fire to pieces of paper and shouted:

"HORN, HORN, BURN THIS LETTER!"

The paper trade carried a large anchor with "To the Windward" on it. The bar section included many well-known lawyers and numbered 1400 and came in for its share of admiration. The insurance men brought up the rear of the procession. The enthusiasm displayed during the march of the men and all along the line was extraordinary. There were several cheers for Blaine and Logan and several pictures of Blaine were exhibited on the sidewalk and cheered, but all was taken good naturedly. Blows were, however, exchanged at the post-office, in front of which some employees of the federal building waved a large portrait of Blaine.

AFTER THE PARADE.

When Gov. Cleveland moved from the stand after the procession had passed until he entered his hotel the crowd kept up a continuous cheer. The governor had great trouble in getting across the street, so dense was the crowd. A dozen policemen, including Capt. Williams, had all they could do to make room for him. This great display in numbers as well as appearance had not passed away when the torches of Tammany's braves were seen waving wherever one looked as the different wards and assembly district associations were making their way to the rendezvous in Washington square.

A DEMONSTRATION IN BROOKLYN.

While these monster demonstrations were taking place in New York, Brooklyn over the river was having a parade of her own, and it is estimated that 25,000 men were in line. For the first time in the history of Democratic processions, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher came in for the lion's share of the plaudits, and his epigrams of the campaign furnished sentiments for many banners. Brooklyn was assisted in its display by delegations from the country towns. The line of march was from the city hall to Williamsburg, a distance of about two miles. There was great enthusiasm all along the route.

THE TAMMANY PARADE.

The streets were jammed with people to-night to see the Tammany parade. At 10 o'clock Gov. Cleveland and the delegations from the business men's club made their way to the reviewing stand. The governor was there joined by members of the state and national committees. The governor was continuously cheered until the procession appeared. John Kelly and the other members of Tammany rode at the head of the line. After them came delegations of the First assembly district, the young men's Democratic club, the Third and other district organizations. A large majority of the banners bore legends referring to local issues. The crowd made much noise. The governor was repeatedly cheered also on his return to the hotel.

DENTON.

The Day's Races—A Hunt for Horse-Thieves—An Attempted Burglary.

Special to the Gazette.

DENTON, TEX., Nov. 1.—The races mentioned in yesterday's dispatch came off at the fair-grounds to-day, with the following result:

First race, one mile dash, purse $100, was won by "Whirlwind," entered by Sam Skinner; Bessie Elson's sorrel mare Kate coming in second and W. B. Gregg's sorrel colt "Miss Longfellow" coming in third best.

Second race, 444 yards dash, purse $100—Won by Tompkins' sorrel gelding, "Old Ball;" Thos. Lapp's sorrel colt, Thomas H., came in second; no third.

Third race, trotting, purse $100—Won by Gregg's black gelding, "Black Henry;" Houston Stiff's Gray Warrior was second.

Fourth race, trotting and pacing—Won by A. Hunter's bay gelding, "Pat;" H. Benson's bay mare, "Fanny," second.

Fifth race, running one-half mile, purse $75—Won by Ab Collins' gray horse, "Sam;" C. H. Ware's bay horse, Dick Cochran, was second, and Gid Liles' roan horse, Frank Ewas, third.

A good crowd was in attendance, several ladies being present. We understand that several dollars changed hands on the results.

Late this afternoon four men arrived in the city in search of three robbers and cattle thieves, who stole some cattle in Wise county and carried them to Dallas and sold them. As they passed through going back they robbed a store at Kirkwood and another one on Oliver creek belonging to Squire Haynes. The cattle were stolen from a man named Reclor. The three thieves are described as follows:

The first is about five feet six inches high, with black hair and gray eyes, rather fat nose and small feet, wearing a No. 4 or 5 boot of shoe, and was riding a good horse about fifteen hands high. The second is about six feet high, round complexion, black hair and red hair. He weighs about 150 pounds, and was riding a good bay horse. The third is a low, heavy-set man, with dark hair and skin and was riding a brown horse.

They were all together and going toward Decatur and carrying behind their saddles a yellow slicker.

An attempt was made last night to burglarize the dry goods of Williams & Greenlee. Parties were seen around the front door about two o'clock and from a part of the conversation overheard it was presumed they were laying some plot upon which they all could not agree. It transpired this morning that they had tried to cut through the large plate glass doors which they did not succeed in doing, but that glass was fractured which is of itself quite a loss, having cost from $125 to $150.

CIRCUS CROOKS CAPTURED.

GALVESTON, TEX., Nov. 1.—Hearing that the vanguard of Sells Bros.' circus hangers-on would arrive to-night, Chief Jordan ordered detectives to meet the Santa Fe train at Alvin and spot the suspected crooks. On boarding the train the detectives found that there were eight men and three women of the gang remaining which took passage at Alvin. It transpired that the men after leaving the village attempted to capture a train and behaved in such a manner that Conductor Dillon had his hands full in restraining them. He would have ejected them but lacked the necessary force. Eight of the gang, one of whom drew a pistol on the conductor, got off at Seely, one at Wallis and the balance came to this city. On reaching the depot the gang rushed on Conductor Dillon, and would, doubtless, have slain him up, when Detective Williams and Chief Jordan got in their work and took five of the six men to jail also the three women. Among their effects was a quantity of fine jewelry, cheap silk handkerchiefs, and in fact the entire outfit of a fair was found, together with a brace of new Colt's forty-five revolvers with belt and cartridges. They gave their names as T. H. Dalton, Charles Simpson, J. N. Morris, T. J. Blackburn and M. G. Sanford. Their motives consisted of the party selling cheap prize packages, while the remaining numbers pick the pockets of the crowd about the stand.

A THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD MURDERER.

Special to the Gazette.

BELTON, TEX., Nov. 1.—Tod Estes and Ben Duncan, two colored boys aged thirteen and nineteen years, became involved in a dispute this afternoon over some peaches which they had gathered. Estes shot Duncan with an old revolver, killing him instantly. The youthful murderer has not yet been arrested.

WHOLESALE SHOOTING AT A POLITICAL MEETING.

NEW BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 1.—At a Kellogg meeting in Lawrenceville to-day some negroes got into a difficulty. Joe Gilford stepped in to quiet them, when a negro drew a shot through his hat. He returned the fire with a general effect. By this time there was a general resort to firearms. Joe Gilford was the first to fall, shot dead between the eyes. The sheriff, who was also shot dead, shot dead three other negroes were killed. Jules Webster and Judge Fontellier are reported wounded. The excitement here is very great and squads of armed men have left for the scene of the conflict. The town will be in a state of alarm. The excitement here is very great and squads of armed men have left for the scene of the conflict. The town will be in a state of alarm.

LATER—A large number of persons have been brought in by armed men. It is impossible to ascertain the number to-night. They were placed in jail and in jail a number of reports are that the Republicans were over there expecting trouble, and it came. Fontellier is not wounded as at first reported. Many others were wounded but they got off. Most of the reports agree that six negroes were killed, but as they happened after the first fire it is impossible to say positively how many were wounded.

NEW BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Nov. 1.—Judge Fontellier and ten others left here this morning for Lawrenceville, in this parish, to hold a political meeting in the interest of Kellogg. A crowd had assembled a disturbance was created by persons hailing "Hurrah for Joe!" Joe Gilford rushed to the scene of trouble and was fired at with a ball passing through his hat. He returned the fire. At that moment there was a general row and shot, and several persons, including a Republican and Democrat, Gilford and other colored Kellogg supporters were killed.

The wounded are in a serious way. Jules Webster, Republican candidate for sheriff last spring, thigh broken; ex-Sheriff T. Victor, shot twice in the abdomen. About a dozen others were wounded. As far as known, the negroes were killed as far as known. The perpetrators are surrounded and kept under guard until they can be taken to New Orleans and a few moments after he arrived there was in wild excitement. All the negroes were killed by order of the sheriff. Fifty to seventy men left under orders. The sheriff's posse arrived with shotguns and rifles, arrested the Fontellier and Jules Webster and five white men, who are in jail under heavy guard. The first ball came from the Republican ranks. After this it is said that thousands of shots were fired simultaneously on the battlefield. It is said that a dozen horses are lying dead. It is impossible to learn how many men were wounded, but it is reported that a great many wounded were left during the excitement.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY.

MORGAN, TEX., Nov. 1.—From a gentleman who came in on the 7:30 east-bound train on the Central yesterday, we are informed that two men, namely J. W. McKinney and J. L. Hamilton, became involved in a difficulty at 11:00 about four o'clock yesterday evening, in which McKinney was instantly killed. Hamilton was seriously wounded. The next transaction between the two parties, Hamilton is under arrest and will likely prove himself justifiable in the deed, as McKinney was drawing a knife on him, when he fired the fatal shot.

A FARMER DRUGGED AND ROBBED.

CLARKSVILLE, TEX., Nov. 1.—A farmer named Peacock, living in the Sand Fork neighborhood in this county, reports that he was robbed of $15 last night. He states that he was selling a bale of cotton he left for home at nightfall in his wagon. A stranger asked permission to ride in the wagon, to which Peacock agreed. After a while the stranger offered him a glass of beer, which he accepted. He remembers nothing thereafter until late at night, he awoke lying in the bottom of the wagon and his money gone. There is no clue to the robber.

THE FIRST ARRESTS IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 1.—The federal authorities to-night arrested John Stearns, the brother-in-law of Mayor Harrison, the Democratic candidate for governor, W. L. Clinger, clerk of the South Side police court, and F. A. Owens, on the charge of aiding and abetting false registration. The officials refuse to make any statement, except that their evidence is direct. One of the detectives named Douglas, who is supposed collected the evidence, was arrested by the city police on some trivial charges, but was released on bail. The persons arrested were taken before the commissioner and their bail fixed at $200 each.

TEXAS POLITICS.

Judge Rector a Political Fraud.

Special to the Gazette.

BASTROP, TEX., Nov. 1.—Judge Rector has boasted throughout the district that he would carry this county against Sayers, notwithstanding that it is a Republican county. Rector now fears that his boast will not be made good. Having learned that Sayers had made appointments for the West, he caused circulars to be distributed as soon as Maj. Sayers left our town, announcing a thorough canvass of this county. At McDade he even failed to gain what could be called an audience. At Paige he was met by Mr. Phelps of La Grange and most thoroughly defeated. There he claimed to be a Sam Randall Democrat or thorough Independent. To-day he addressed a crowd of negroes and boasted of his Republican record of fourteen years. He had with him colored orators from Austin. He is using every method known to doubtful politicians. The colored vote on account of Rector's independence is badly divided. His use of money is openly talked of on our streets. These methods have so disgusted the intelligent voters of the county, regardless of party, that his money will be spent in vain. He speaks at Red Rock Monday and will receive the answer he so richly deserves.

Elephants in Politics.

Special to the Gazette.

TEXARKANA, ARK., Nov. 1.—A Democratic rally of unusual brilliancy and characteristics was held here to-night. The speakers stood upon the dividing line between Texas and Arkansas, and the rally was by the citizens of those states jointly. Recently two elephants were left here by Sells Bros., circus and these animals were present in the grand parade, bearing the respective names of Cleveland and Hendricks. Several intellectual giants addressed the people, among them Col. Chenoweth, Maj. Grace and others whose names were not learned.

Comptroller Swain.

Special to the Gazette.

HENRIETTA, TEX., Nov. 1.—Comptroller Swain arrived here at noon. At 2 o'clock he addressed about a hundred of our citizens at the opera-house. He spoke about two hours and discussed Republican corruption and vice versa and defended the land board. He thought that the lease law was admitted to be defective.

At the Capital.

Special to the Gazette.

AUSTIN, TEX., Nov. 1.—Maj. W. T. Breckenridge, Democratic candidate for elector, spoke at the court-house to-night.

Judge Rector and a lot of the Independent candidates are holding a meeting in front of the temporary capitol to-night.

Telling the Negroes How to Vote.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., Nov. 1.—The Republicans are marshaling their forces for the election. They have had printed a full state and county ticket, have re-organized the old Loyal League and have been holding secret meetings and instructing the negroes how they shall vote. The tickets will be given out to the blacks Sunday night.

Wellborn and Gibbs.

Special to the Gazette.

DALLAS, TEX., Nov. 1.—Congressman Olin Wellborn and Lieut.-Gov. Barnett Gibbs addressed a large and enthusiastic Democratic multitude at Mayor's garden to-night.

The Excitement Running High.

Special to the Gazette.

LONGVIEW, TEX., Nov. 1.—More new candidates appear every day, and all are engaged in canvassing every portion of the town and county. Never before has local political excitement run so high, but they will all be likely to "give us a rest" to-morrow, it being Sunday. Good men are running, and no matter who wins the people will probably be well served.

Waxing Hotter—Election Bets.

Special to the Gazette.

TYLER, TEX., Nov. 1.—Politics waxed hotter as the day draws nigh, especially in our county affairs. There is speaking every night at the court house here and at two or three different points in the county every day. Our county Democratic nominees certainly deserve success for their untiring energy and magnificent fight.

Bets were made here to-day between some parties and Capt. Jas. G. Winter-smith, door-keeper of the house of representatives, who is here to vote in the county election. He bet $1000 that Cleveland would be elected and $500 that he would carry New York.

Congressman Lanham.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

GRAHAM, TEX., Oct. 30.—Hon. S. W. T. Lanham addressed the citizens of Graham last night. He gave a satisfactory account of his stewardship while in congress, predicted his reelection and then gracefully handled Ben Butler, Norton, Jones and company, in a ludicrous manner that kept his audience in an uproar of laughter for fully half an hour.

Mr. Britt, candidate for district attorney for this district, followed Col. Lanham in a short speech.

Congressman Mills.

Special to the Gazette.

GALVESTON, TEX., Nov. 1.—The Hon. Roger Q. Mills, member of congress, addressed the people of Galveston to-night on the tariff and other issues of the campaign. His speech was one of the most able delivered here during the campaign. He treated the tariff as a commercial obstruction and showed where and how it sapped the very foundation of political economy and good government. He went over much of the old ground, and adduced many new arguments. In conclusion he made a strong appeal for Orin, candidate for congress for this district against Rentfro.

Rounding Up the People.

Special to the Gazette.

GRAND VIEW, TEX., Nov. 1.—Col. J. M. Hall of Alvarado, candidate for district judge in this district; Capt. O. T. Plummer, candidate for county attorney, and D. B. Siplinson, Esq., candidate for county judge, have been rounding up the "dear people" in Grand View for the last day or two. Col. Hall seems sanguine of success, and if we mistake not the signs of the times he will be our next judge.

The Election Officers.

Special to the Gazette.

PILOT POINT, TEX., Nov. 1.—Rev. M. Paine, an old reliable citizen, will manage the election at this place. Capt. Andy Miller and J. F. Elmore are the judges, and Capt. W. A. Kendall and H. D. Cahill clerks. All are well known here, and their appointment is a sufficient guarantee that as far as this place is concerned the ballot will be conducted with justice and fairness to all parties. It will be held on the west side of the square in a room convenient for the purpose.

Republicans Afraid to Bet.

Special to the Gazette.

WACO, TEX., Nov. 1.—County Attorney Eugene Williams got home from New York to-day. He is confident Cleveland will carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Republicans here will not take bets that Blaine will carry New York, but are willing to bet on the general result. Democrats are equally confident, and many bets have been booked to-day.

MULLIGAN BLAINE.

A TRIP TO CONNECTICUT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Mr. Blaine left the Fifth Avenue hotel this morning with Postmaster Manley and drove to the Grand Central depot where he took the nine o'clock train for Hartford. From Hartford Mr. Blaine will go to New Haven by special train and then return to New York, stopping at Bridgeport and other places along the route.

ALONG THE ROUTE.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 1.—In pursuance of the promise made before he started on his Western tour, Mr. Blaine left New York this morning in a special car attached to the regular train to visit the principal places in Connecticut. Gen. Fremont accompanied him. Miss Margaret Blaine and James G. Blaine, Jr., were also of the party. At several points along the route where the train made its regular stops, groups gathered and cheered when looking through the window they discovered Mr. Blaine, but he did not appear in public until the train reached Hartford. On the way a number of Hartford gentlemen who had come to meet him were presented. Gen. Hawley boarded the train at Bridgeport.

At New Haven the usual stop was made and a considerable crowd awaited the arrival of the train and greeted Mr. Blaine, who appeared for a moment on the rear platform and was cheered.

AT HARTFORD.

HARTFORD, CONN., Nov. 1.—At Meriden Senator Platt joined the party. Hartford was reached at noon. As the train came to a stop there was a cannon salute and cheering. Mr. Blaine and Gen. Fremont accompanied by Senator Hawley, entered a carriage and were driven to a stand

WORKING FOR PEACE AT THE POLS.

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 1.—A proclamation has been issued to the press by

David Preston, the Prohibition candidate for governor, and by Josiah W. Begole, governor and Fusion candidate for re-election. The proclamation

sincerely hopes that on that day (Tues-vote in accordance with his convictions of right.

Let every good citizen constitute himself a committee of one to see that the laws regarding the purity of the ballot are observed,

no intoxicants used and nothing permitted to occur in any voting precinct that may tend to injure the reputation of the state.

It closes. We also express the words of hope for our sister states, and pray God that peace and right may prevail in our great union.
